KEVIN RANDALL Special Advisor

Prior his retirement in early 2020, Kevin transacted deals in more than 50 countries on 6 different continents. During his 37-year career, he spent the first nine years with one of the premier international transactional tax planning legal firms based in Dallas, Texas. Mr. Randall then spent the next 28 years with General Electric Company. He began there as the lead tax attorney for GE Aviation. In 1997, he became the lead mergers and acquisitions attorney for GE Aviation and retired 23 years later as the longest serving M&A attorney in the company. In that role at GE, Kevin was responsible for structuring, negotiating and documenting many of GE's largest and most complex cross-border transactions, including mergers, acquisitions, dispositions, joint ventures, strategic alliances and financings. Kevin structured and negotiated deals for GE's largest and most complex businesses including Aviation, Transportation, Lighting, Healthcare, and Capital.

Kevin attended Miami University and graduated in 1979 (summa cum laude, Phi Beta Kappa) with a B.A. Degree in Political Science. He attended the University of Michigan Law School and graduated in 1982 with a J.D. Degree (cum laude, Order of the Coif).

Since retiring, Kevin began his own transactional consulting firm and is currently assisting a healthcare start-up in the diabetes space.
